This outfit has always been fine. By forging a textual corpus underscored by tradition and a temporal unity which dissolved the distinction between the past and present, grammarians were appropriating auctoritas as a constant, unchanging and untarnished ideology of power which was handed down from generation to generation and permitted them access to imperium Irvine While the Etymologiae, sive Origines serves as formidable proof that the grammarian was both encyclopedist and polymath, and underscores the indispensability of letters for the preservation of knowledge and its 38 Companion to Empire transmission, the work is therefore also the magnum opus of an ideologue and administrator who strove to underscore how essential grammatica was and would be to the successful preservation of the new Visigothic kingdom.
